MEMORANDUM TO: [REDACTED]

OCD

SUBJECT: Assistance to Students at War College.

1. Colonel Byrd, Deputy Commandant of the War College, called me recently for assistance to a student who is in need of materials on population. I referred him to [REDACTED] and asked Bill to let this student have access to our population expert applying the normal security judgments with respect to the availability of our materials.

2. There will be other cases where students at the War College will be wanting to have access to classified materials in our possession.

3. As agreed by us over the telephone on 23 September OCD has the responsibility for receiving inquiries from students of the War College and for meeting such requests by placing the requestor for our classified materials in contact with the originating office or in other cases, where more convenient, obtaining a decision on the materials from the originating office. It is understood that your office will inform Colonel Byrd of these arrangements.
